Gary Vonck—Vice President, Education Division

We are pleased to announce that on January 13th, 2013, Gary Vonck, Vice President of KeyImpact's Education Division, was awarded the Silver Friend of Child Nutrition Award.

The FAME Awards, now in its 24th year, presented Gary with the award at the SNA Child Nutrition Industry Conference (CNIC) in San Antonio, TX.

The FAME Awards selection committee, comprised of previous winners, the current SNA president and editors from various foodservice publications, chose Gary from a vast pool of nominations. Winning nominations describe a child nutrition advocate who supports such a cause beyond the scope of normal professional duties.

Gary's contribution to the child nutrition industry is extensive and spans many years of dedication and contribution to moving the industry forward. His work has included being an Industry Representative on both the Board of Directors of the School Nutrition Association and the Advisory Board for the National Foodservice Management Institute. Gary consistently exudes the level of professionalism and expertise that has made KeyImpact a major player in the industry. In his acceptance speech, Gary Vonck stated, "I have always told my team that working in the field of child nutrition is a gift—it's one area of foodservice that allows us to really make a difference and impact the future."

Please join all of us at KeyImpact in congratulating Gary Vonck on this prestigious award!
